

Hinduja looks to buy Mauritian state lender

BLOOMBERG
Port Louis, February 26

HINDUJA GROUP India, owned by the billionaire Hinduja brothers, is considering buying majority stake in state-owned MauBank of Mauritius, according to two people with knowledge of the matter.

Selling control of MauBank would enable the Mauritian government to recoup some of the money it used to bail out the lender. The state has spent 600 crore ($182 million) since 2015, when it created National Commercial Bank to acquire some of the assets of collapsed lender Bramer Bank, and then merged it with loss-making Mauritius Post Cooperative Bank to create MauBank.

Representatives of Hinduja completed due diligence on MauBank and the Mauritian lender is now awaiting an investment decision by the company, said the people who asked not to be identified because the talks are private. Hinduja may buy as much as 75% of the holding company of the bank, said one of the people.

"We confirm being considered by a strategic investor," MauBank CEO Sridhar Nagarajan said in an emailed response to questions on Monday. "The due diligence has been completed and the discussion has moved to the next stage."

MauBank, which has assets totaling ₹2,620 crore, returned to profit in the year through June 2017 and the lender is "ripe" for a strategic investor, Nagarajan said in October. The bank expects to complete a stake sale in the first half of 2018. LeDeFi Quotidian newspaper reported earlier this month. A Hinduja representative didn't immediately respond to an email and phone calls.

WHERE WILL THE SCHEME INVEST
(i) Equity and Equity related securities include:
• convertible bonds and debentures and warrants carrying the right to obtain equity shares,
• Derivative instruments like options and futures on equity securities/indices,
• and such other instruments as may be permitted under the Regulations from time to time.

The equity component of the portfolio will invest only in mid cap stocks i.e. securities with a market cap outside the top 100 companies by market capitalization below Rs.500 crores at the time of investment. In addition, the scheme will not invest in any companies that are part of the Nifty 50 Index. However, all securities in the equity benchmark index (Nifty Midcap 100 Index) will be permissible for investment.

Under section / Product differentiation
Objective/Purpose of the scheme
BAMFED is an open-ended Equity Fund which can invest 65 to 80% in mid cap equities and the remaining in fixed income instruments.

Investment Strategy
The equity component of the portfolio will be invested in mid cap stocks. Mid caps are defined as securities with a market cap outside the top 100 companies by market capitalization. The scheme will not invest in any securities with a market capitalization below Rs.500 crores at the time of investment. In addition, the scheme will not invest in any companies that are part of the Nifty 50 Index. However, all securities in the equity benchmark index (Nifty Midcap 100 Index) will be permissible for investment.

Who should invest in the scheme
BAMFED is a Equity fund investing in mid cap equity stocks as well as fixed income securities. While the fixed income component of the portfolio is expected to provide some buffer from the volatility of mid caps, a 65% portion of the portfolio will also be invested in mid cap equity stocks. Hence, investors must understand the higher risk and volatility involved with investing in mid caps compared to large cap stocks.

For Equity Investments:
Under normal market conditions, BOI AXA Mid Cap Equity & Debt Fund will invest 65% to 80% of its assets in a diversified portfolio constituting equity and equity related instruments of mid cap companies that the Fund Manager believes have sustainable business models, and potential for capital appreciation. Mid caps are defined as securities with a market cap outside the top 100 companies by market capitalization. The scheme will not invest in any securities with a market cap below Rs.500 crores at the time of investment. In addition, the scheme will not invest in any companies that are part of the Nifty 50 Index. However, all securities in the equity benchmark index (Nifty Midcap 100 Index) will be permissible for investment.

The Schemes would follow an actively managed approach allowing it the flexibility to pursue opportunities across the mid cap universe, without having any bias in favour of sectoral allocations. The investment environment, valuation parameters and other investment criteria will determine the allocation and the investment style of the Schemes. Under normal market conditions and depending on the Fund Manager's views, the assets of the Scheme would be invested across stocks that represent a broad range of sectors of the economy, in order to ensure adequate portfolio diversification.

(c) Risks associated with investing in Mid cap stocks:
While investing in Mid-cap stocks give one an opportunity to go beyond the usual large blue chip stocks and present possible higher capital appreciation, it is important to note that Mid-cap stocks are more volatile on a relative basis. Therefore, the risk levels of investing in Mid cap stocks are more than investing in stocks of large well-established companies. And it is important to note that generally, no one class consistently outperforms the others. Mid and small cap stocks carries higher liquidity risk as they are less extensively researched compared to large cap stocks. This may lead to abnormal illiquidity and consequent higher impact cost.
